

The Wakening

Katherine Lucas

(Tune – middle part)

Deep within the earth the stirring

Deep within the land the calling

Deep within us all the wakening

I sing of spring      x4

The song of spring

(Top)

Blackbird calling to you I sing of spring

Snowdrops break through to you I sing of spring

New light at dawn greets you I sing of spring

Storm thrush singing to you I sing of spring

The song of spring

(Lower)

Deep asleep am I but now:

    the blackbird calls

    the snowdrops break through the new light at dawn

    the storm thrush sings

The song of spring
